SO LONG AS BRITAIN CONTROLS MEDITERRANEAN CHANCES OF AN ENEMY VICTORY POOR: MASTERY WHICH DICTATORS STRIVING TO BREAK

"THE OUTCOME OF THE STRUGGLE WHICH HAS STARTED IN AROUND THE MEDITERRANEAN MAY DEPEND ON SEA-POWER AND AS LONG AS BRITAIN CONTROLS THIS THE CHANCES OF ENEMY VICTORY ARE POOR," said MR. WICKHAM STEED, the eminent British journalist, in a talk from London last night on world affairs.

"THE BIG NOISE THIS WEEK," HE SAID, "IS THE ITALIAN INVASION OF GREECE. At 3 o'clock last Monday morning Italy delivered an ultimatum to the Greek Prime Minister demanding free passage for Italian troops to occupy certain strategic points.

"The ultimatum was rejected and before it expired Italian troops crossed the frontier at 5.30 a.m."

WU TE-CHEN CORDIALLY WELCOMED IN N.E.I.

CHUNGKING, Nov. 1 (Central)—General Wu Te-chen, Minister of Overseas Affairs and China's goodwill envoy to the South Sea Islands, has left Batavia for Sumatra and other parts of the Netherlands East Indies, according to a message from the Chinese Consulate-General in Batavia.

Since his arrival in Batavia on Oct. 18, Gen. Wu had been cordially welcomed and feted by the Governor-General and other high officials of the Netherlands East Indies Government as well as the overseas Chinese community.

On Oct. 23 the Chinese Consulate-General gave a tea reception in his honour. Over 700 Netherlands officials, foreign diplomatic and consular officers and overseas Chinese leaders were present.

As a result of Gen. Wu's visit, there is a fresh demonstration of patriotism among the overseas Chinese in the Netherlands East Indies who have contributed $1,000,000 (National currency) to the Chinese Government.

Gen. Wu is expected to complete his goodwill tour in the Netherlands East Indies within a week.

Mr. Steed mentioned here the messages sent by H.M. the King and Mr. Churchill to King George of Greece and the Greek Prime Minister assuring them of Britain's determination to help Greece to the utmost of her power.

WICKHAM STEED

"While these things were going on," said Mr. Steed, "Hitler and Mussolini were meeting in Florence. This followed after Hitler's hurried visit to Paris to meet M. Laval and then to the Spanish frontier to meet General Franco

STRIKING TRIBUTE TO CHARACTER OF FRANCO

LONDON, Nov. 1 (Reuter)—A striking tribute to the character of General Franco was contained in THE TIMES' leading article which states that the apparently negative result of Herr Hitler's recent visit to him at Hendaye confirms the impression that he will never be led astray from his chosen course by either intimidation or cajolery.

"The Caudillo, no doubt, shares certain ambitions for his country which are in the minds of all Spaniards and he would not hesitate to alter his course in his own time if he believed it to be in the interests of Spain."

"He has repeatedly stated that the country's present need is, above all, to repair the ruin of the civil war, to unite the Parties so lately divided, to restore the integrity of national life and lay the foundations for prosperity."

The Times concludes by asserting that a British victory will restore to Spain that freedom to regulate her own life in her own way which association with the Axis would ultimately destroy.

AMERICAN PEOPLE MUST BE TOLD THIS IS THEIR WAR

"A Washington paper yesterday blames both Presidential candidates for pulling their punches and demands that the people of the United States be told that this is their war. I can imagine no more dismal reading for Herr Hitler and Signor Mussolini than this. Here, indeed, is full sympathy in the cause of human freedom," said MR. CYRIL LAKIN, commentator on international developments, when he spoke in London last night.

"The most significant thing in the news today is the fact that the two candidates in the United States presidential election are outpitting each other in regard to the amount of aid they want to give to Britain," said Mr. Lakin.

"Nothing can be more heartening to us in Britain and nothing more disheartening to the dictators. It looks as if Herr Hitler, having lost the Battle of Britain, is going to lose the Battle of America."

"Mr. Roosevelt's revelation that Britain has 26,000 planes on order in America did not tell the full story. The Secretary of State to the Treasury now adds that the United States is to build a large number of cargo ships for Britain on mass production lines, 28 at a time, methods which proved most successful in the last war."

"More important than the figures themselves was Mr. Roosevelt's assurance that the influence of White House is being used with the Priorities Board to see that these orders are given preferential consideration."

"Mr. Wendell Wilkie, not only endorses this view, but goes further, that Mr. Roosevelt's order for 12,000 planes for Britain would be

ITALIAN ADVANCE INTO GREECE IN TWO DIRECTIONS: INVADERS REACH KALIBAKI ROAD JUNCTION

British Bomber Command Aircraft Attack Naples Oil Tanks In Successful Raids

ROME, NOV. 1 (REUTER)—THE ITALIAN ADVANCE INTO GREECE IS IN TWO DIRECTIONS—FROM THE ARGIROCASTRO ZONE TOWARDS JANINA, 32 MILES FROM THE ALBANIAN FRONTIER, AND FROM MORCHA, TOWARDS FLORINA. STATES THE OFFICIAL ITALIAN NEWS AGENCY WHICH BASES ITS INFORMATION ON ITALIAN HIGH-COMMAND COMMUNIQUE AND DISPATCHES FROM WAR CORRESPONDENTS.

The newspaper Messaggero states that in spite of bad weather and obstructions on roads caused by the retreating Greeks, who have blown up bridges, the Italian advance continues without slackening.

OPERATIONS OF THE GREEK ARMY HITHERTO APPEARS TO BE OF A DEFENSIVE CHARACTER AND THERE IS ONLY SOME RESISTANCE, MORE OR LESS SEVERE, FROM THE REARGUARDS.

Operations at Epirus are proceeding according to plan, states an Italian communique, and Italian troops have reached the road junction at Kalibaki. Work of repairing the damage done by the enemy in his retreat is proceeding.

The communique adds that British planes raided the aerodrome at Marmarica, Eastern Libya, causing slight damage and the raid on Adigalla, East Africa, also caused slight damage.

ENTIRELY SATISFACTORY RESULTS, NOV. 1 (Reuter)—Operations on the Greek-Albanian frontier yesterday can be regarded as entirely satisfactory from the Greek point of view for every attack by the Italians was repulsed and nowhere did they gain a single kilometre.

In their unsuccessful efforts the Italian employed three types of forces. First, light tanks came into action on the western or coastal sector, but as their intended route was narrow and the nature of the ground prevented them from deploying they did no good.

Second, their cavalry attempted to cross the river, also in the coastal sector, in order to reach the start of the Greek main line of defences. These reports state that General Metaxas, the Greek Prime Minister, made a mistake in interpreting the Italian note to Greece as declaration of war.

The report also stated that officials in Germany stated yesterday that Germany has no quarrel with Greece and that Italy will have to get on with the job by herself.

There has been no official news of the fighting in Greece, except for the Greek communique issued yesterday morning which states that Italian infantry and tank operations were repulsed everywhere.

The Italians were reported to have sustained losses and the Greeks took a number of prisoners. Greek planes were also said to have bombed the Italians from a low altitude and one Italian plane was brought down.

Another report from Greece claims that two Italian columns were ambushed at the northern end of the Albanian frontier.

RAID NAPLES The Royal Air Force raided Naples yesterday, according to an announcement by the Air Ministry and several oil tanks were destroyed. The attack was successful and all British planes returned safely.

This is the third time that Naples has been bombed and the raid was admitted by the Italian Air Ministry, which stated, however, that the damage was slight.

TIRANA BOMBED NEW YORK, Nov. 1 (Reuter)—Reports that British bombers, operating from Greek bases, have heavily bombed Tirana, capital of Italian-occupied Albania, and several Albanian towns are contained in messages from Salonika to the New York Times.

It is added that later Greek bombers showered high explosive bombs on Tirana.

SLOWNESS OF ADVANCE LONDON, Nov. 1 (Reuter)—Still another explanation for the slowness of the Italian advance is supplied by the Rome Radio, which states "that Italy still hoped that

BRITISH PRESS CALLS FOR IMMEDIATE ACTION AGAINST ITALY

LONDON, Nov. 1 (Reuter)—The Daily Herald, the Daily Express and the News-Chronicle all call for early action against the Italians.

The former outspokenly declares: "We have got to hit Signor Mussolini so hard that we leave our mark on him and the imprint of our blows must be plainly visible to his people and all the world."

"Many nations will draw vital conclusions from this, the first direct clash between Britain and Italy."

The DAILY EXPRESS says: "There is an idea abroad that if the Italians refrain from any further bombing of Athens we should not bomb Rome but Herr Hitler, apparently, would be free to continue his indiscriminate bombing of London and other British cities."

"If the bombing of Rome means an earlier victory for the Greeks and ourselves we should begin tomorrow and continue until the Italians see sense."

INSTANT ACTION The NEWS-CHRONICLE'S call is for instant action. "Italy must be attacked and attacked at once. We have, at last, an opportunity of battering it from adjacent territory and that opportunity must not be lost."

"Italy cannot too often be said to be the weakest link in the Axis. Smash it and more than half the battle is won."

SYDNEY SUPPORT SYDNEY, Nov. 1 (Reuter)—Supporting the demands of London newspapers that Britain should strike hard against Italy while Italy is hesitating, the SYDNEY TELEGRAPH writes: "Nobody with a realistic attitude towards

Roosevelt's Severe Note To Petain

NEW YORK, Nov. 1 (Reuter)—President Roosevelt's recent message to Marshal Petain was severe in tone, says a Washington dispatch to the New York Herald-Tribune which was quoting a "reliable French source."

The message adds that it is learned that President Roosevelt intimated that measures would have to be taken to obviate any threat of a change of sovereignty of French possessions in the Western Hemisphere.

Mr. Roosevelt also suggested, the message continued, that it would be regrettable if Franco-American friendship should be disrupted after 150 years.

the war can disagree that Italy, with her bent for stabbing in the back smaller peoples, particularly when down, must be hit where it hurts most—and hit now. "Italy's ports and shipping must be bombed and wrecked and burned and her industrial centres and munition works pulverised."

New Chaplin Film Is Big Success

GOEBBELS ASKED TO TELL TRUTH

NEW YORK, Nov. 1 (Reuter)—The United Artists Corporation, well-known film producers and distributors, has sent a personal cable to Dr. Joseph Goebbels telling him that the German broadcast in which Charlie Chaplin's new film "The Great Dictator" was described as playing to "half empty houses" was a "gross distortion of truth."

The cable asks Dr. Goebbels to correct the broadcast and tell the Germans the true facts, namely,

TODAY'S WAR SUMMARY

AN ITALIAN COMMUNIQUE CLAIMS that operations at Epirus are proceeding according to plan and Italian troops have reached the road junction at Kalibaki. A message from Athens states that the Italians in their unsuccessful efforts are employing three types of forces, light tanks, cavalry and the use of Albanian irregulars. Naples was successfully raided by British aircraft and oil tanks were hit.

THE TIMES, IN AN EDITORIAL, pays striking tribute to the character of General Franco and asserts that a British victory would restore to Spain that freedom which will regulate her to regulate her own life in her own way which association with the Axis would ultimately destroy.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN'S LATEST FILM "The Great Dictator" is playing to capacity houses in America and Dr. Goebbels has been informed by cable that the German broadcast in which the film was described as playing to "half empty houses" is a distortion of the truth.

UNFORGETTABLE STORY OF HUMAN DRAMA

"MY SON, MY SON!"

An unforgettable story, brilliant performances, outstanding direction and a beautiful production make Edward Small's film version of Howard Spring's "My Son, My Son!" one of the finest pictures of the year.

This new film drama, which is being released by United Artists, will be screened at the Majestic Theatre today and should draw capacity houses.

"My Son, My Son!" has a brilliant array of stars in Madeleine
Carroll, Brian Aherne and Louis Hayward, a trio which enhances the picture by down-to-earth, unforgettable acting.

The story of "My Son, My Son!"
is rich in emotional implications and everyday drama. It concerns a father and a son, and the high hopes that fail to materialize.

William Essex's dreams for his son fade into thin air when he realizes that Oliver is a vain and selfish, young man, over sophisticated, insincere and cynical. Oliver realizes almost too late that he has brought misery to the people who have surrounded him with love and understanding.

"My Son, My Son!" definitely belongs among the great pictures that from time to time come out of Hollywood to surprise the millions of moviegoers all over the world. It is a memorable screen achievement because for sheer entertainment, it hasn't been—and is unlikely to be—surpassed in a long time to come.

FIGHTING PATROLS ARE ACTIVE IN SUDAN

CAIRO, Nov. 1 (Reuter)—British fighting patrols were again active in the Kassala region of the Sudan on October 27 and 28, according to a British communique.

Presidential Campaign

Appeasement Policy Out, Says Willkie

BALTIMORE, Maryland, Nov. 1 (Reuter)—An allegation that President Roosevelt has been trying to "appease" the totalitarian Powers was made by Mr. Wendell Willkie in his campaign speech here yesterday.

Mr. Willkie promised to work for the "maintenance of peace in the Western Hemisphere" but said that he would not stand for a policy of appeasement. He contended that the Roosevelt administration had been "helping those very nations which the third term candidate says should be quarantined," citing the recent release of a shipment of machine tools to Russia, the ally of Germany.

Mr. Willkie added: "This is no way to protect ourselves. As President I will not help to mechanize the Red Army so that it can carry out its purposes. We shall feel well content to mechanize the army of the United States."

Mr. Willkie said appeasement was the surest way to war.

ONE-HOUR RAID ON FLUSHING

RAILWAY JUNCTION SET ON FIRE

LONDON, Nov. 1 (Reuter)—Many tons of high explosive bombs and hundreds of incendiaries were dropped on Wednesday night on the German-occupied ports of Flushing, Antwerp and Emden, states the Air Ministry news service.

The attack on Flushing began early in the evening and lasted just over an hour. Several sticks of bombs were dropped on Walcheren Canal and the inner and outer harbours, and though cloud and haze made it difficult to see the full results of the bombing, one huge fire started between two docks was visible from 35 miles away.

EMDEN HAVOC
At Antwerp, explosions and fires were reported in the harbour area.

At Emden, bursts were observed on a quay and in the harbour; one very bright fire was started while other fires were seen to spread rapidly.

One aircraft attacked a nearby railway junction, where a large fire occurred.

ISOLATED RAIDS ON BRITAIN

LONDON, Nov. 1 (Reuter)—Isolated enemy aircraft made a number of attacks on various parts of the country since midday yesterday, states an Air Ministry communique.

Bombs were dropped on two towns in the Eastern Counties and a point in South Wales, and the Midlands, according to reports hitherto received.

There was a small number of casualties but the resulting damage was slight.
After an earlier alert, Londoners heard the earliest "Raiders Passed" signal last night since the extensive night raids began in early September. Buses, trams and tubes ran to normal schedule.

DEPORTATION OF MRS. BROWDER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1 (Reuter)—The Department of Justice has ordered deportation to Russia of Mrs. Raissa Berkman Browder, wife of Earl Browder, the Communist leader, on the ground that she entered the United States illegally.
The Browners were married in Moscow in 1926.

VICEROY OF INDIA

LONDON, Nov. 1 (Reuter)—Lord Linlithgow's term of office as Viceroy of India is extended for a further period of a year from April, 1941.

REPORTS OF SOVIET AID FOR TURKEY RIDICULED

ATHENS, Nov. 1 (Reuter)—Reports that the Soviet Union has promised to assist Turkey in the event of a German attack on the Dardanelles are ridiculed here.

The Turkish view apparently is that if the Soviet Union had felt strong enough to challenge Germany she would have prevented her establishing herself on the Black Sea coast.

According to reports reaching Ankara from Moscow, Soviet officials are already hinting that the Straits are of no great interest to the Soviet Union anyway.

POLISH-CZECH CO-OPERATION

Ministerial Rebuke For M. Laval

LONDON, Nov. 1 (Reuter)—Close co-operation between the Polish and Czechoslovak peoples "who are in the same arena fighting for God against the devil," was urged by M. Jan Masaryk, Czechoslovak Minister in London, in a speech to the New Europe Circle yesterday.

M. Masaryk said: "We are not doing any sabotage for the simple reason that we would be massacred but the wheels of Skoda do not revolve quite as quickly as they did two years ago and things do not come out as beautifully finished as they did."
M. Masaryk added they were fighting Laval just as much as Hitler and it was a terrible idea that the soul of France was going to be chained to Hitler's apocalyptic.

ANTI-WAR ORATOR ARRESTED

LONDON, Nov. 1 (Reuter)—Jawaharlal Nehru, one of the two men chosen by Gandhi to make anti-war speeches in India, was arrested at Allahabad last night, according to the Delhi Radio.

GERMAN AIRMAN HELD PRISONER IN BATHROOM

Here are some of the things that happened during recent raids on London; things heroic, and tragic, and purely comic, jostling one another in a fantasy of life and death.

A Dornier, riddled with a Spitfire's bullets, fled south over the Thames estuary. Suddenly its tail snapped off and the bomber crashed—in a field near some houses.

When householders hurried over they found two of the crew badly injured, the other two unhurt. They took the uninjured men to a house and decided that they had better be separated.
So one of the Germans was invited to take a bath. He accepted—and was locked in the bathroom until soldiers arrived.

BULLET? NO, TEA

Mrs. Betty Tylee and Miss Jean Smithson were first to reach the young pilot of a Messerschmitt when it was shot down by an R.A.F. fighter.

He was lying some distance from his machine and he wore the Iron Cross.

His first question in very good English was: "Are you going to shoot me now?"
"No," said Mrs. Tylee. "We don't do that in England. Would you like a cup of tea?"

"Yes, please," he said eagerly. So they made the Nazi airman a cup of tea. Then the ambulance called to take him to hospital.

MOVE SECONDED

A meeting of the rural council was being held in a south-eastern district when raiders were reported in the area.

Solemnly the chairman rose and proposed: "That this meeting do adjourn to an air-raid shelter."
Solemnly a councillor rose: "I beg to second the motion."

Solemnly the councillors raised their hands. The chairman declared the motion carried. And solemnly they walked to an air-raid shelter, where the business of the meeting was continued.

CAT STAYS ON

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Smith were walking through the streets of a south-eastern town recently when a raid began. They carried a jug and a saucer, and they were going to their old home, destroyed by bombs a month ago.

Berlin And Italo-Greek Hostilities

BASLE, Nov. 1 (Reuter)—The Wilhelmstrasse's view of the Italian conflict with Greece has changed, states the Berlin correspondent of the Basler Nachrichten.

It is suggested that the Italo-Greek war will soon have consequences for Germany's relations with Hungary.

Official circles in Berlin compare Italy's action in Greece with Germany's action in Norway.

The political solidarity of Berlin and Rome is emphasised, seeing that the action against Greece is part of the common warfare against Britain.

Neutral observers are seriously concerned at the danger of extension of the Italo-Greek conflict, adds the correspondent.

London Raid Shelters

ACCOMMODATION TO BE INCREASED

LONDON, Nov. 1 (Reuter)—Further steps are being taken to increase air raid shelter accommodation in London tubes and to make it easier for people to go to and from work.

On Monday next express buses, stopping at only two intermediate points, will be run to the suburbs on ten extra routes.

Buses lent by the provinces and Scotland to the L.P.T.B. already number over 400 and more are going to help the "Green Line" Country Coaches routes and other auxiliary service.

REFRESHMENT CANTEENS

Bunks in three tiers are being put in tube stations thereby increasing accommodation and also leaving more space for the people taking temporary shelter while passing the stations.

Some of the shelters already have refreshment canteens and these will be expanded. A total staff of 1,000 will be needed to run these canteens.

JAPANESE "OCTOBER OFFENSIVE" FAILS

SHANGHAI, NOV. 1 (Central)—The Japanese "October offensive" on the Eastern Front has ended in complete failure. During the month, there was considerable military activity in southern Anhwei, eastern Kiangsi, eastern and western Chekiang, but in all those areas, the Japanese suffered defeat and losses.

Employing the tactics of mobile warfare, the Japanese launched vigorous attacks since the beginning of October, their object apparently being the destruction of Chinese military bases and the seizure of foodstuffs and military supplies.

The Japanese opened their campaign in southern Anhwei on Oct. 4. Their main force was met and attacked by Chinese troops north-east of Chinghsien, northwest of Hsuancheng. Thwarted in their advance in southern Anhwei, the Japanese turned toward the Anhwei-Kiangsu border where they raided Kwangteh and Liyang. But their attacks again proved abortive due to strong Chinese resistance.

STOLE A MARCH

Under the cover of darkness on the night of Oct. 12, the Japanese stole a march across the Fuchun River in eastern Chekiang where they immediately started an attack on Chuki. At about the same time the Japanese at Shao-shan commenced a push eastward toward Shaoching.

Lured to penetrate deeper and deeper, the two Japanese columns advanced recklessly to points favourable to Chinese defence, where they were subjected to severe frontal and flank attacks. As the result, Chuki and Shaoching were recovered in rapid succession by the Chinese, and the Japanese were forced to beat a hasty retreat toward Shao-shan, where they are now maintaining a precarious hold.

The Chinese in southern Anhwei have recovered all the points which they held prior to October 4. In eastern Kiangsi, the Chinese scored a signal victory in the recapture of Matang, strategic Yangtze fortress, 47 miles below Kiukiang.

BIG BRITISH ORDER FOR AMERICAN FREIGHTERS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1 (Reuter)—The fact that the British Government ordered a large number of freighters from the United States was disclosed by Mr. Morgenthau, Secretary for the Treasury, yesterday.

NEED FOR SANATORIA STRESSED

COLONY'S ALARMING PERCENTAGE OF T.B. CASES

An alarmingly high percentage of tuberculosis cases coming to hospital for treatment, are in an advanced stage of the disease, and most of these cases, which are considered incurable, have to be refused admission or discharged so that the limited accommodation can be reserved for those who stand a better chance of getting some improvement.

Those discharged unfortunately go home and continue to spread the infection to others. The solution is obviously the presence of sanatoria in this Colony, stated Dr. Ling Ke-dieh, at the Queen Mary Hospital on Thursday night, while lecturing before a meeting of the South China Branch of the British Medical Association on the subject "Some aspects of the treatment of pulmonary tuberculosis."

The President, the Hon. Dr. P. S. Selwyn-Clarke, was in the Chair, while among others present who took part in the discussions following the lecture were Prof. Wilkinson, Prof. Robertson, the Hon. Dr. Li Shu-fan, Dr. T. P. Wu, Surgeon Commander G. S. Rutherford, Dr. Chan Wal-cheong, Dr. N. K. Lau and Dr. Souza.

METHODS FOR DIAGNOSIS

In the course of his lecture, Dr. Ling stressed the importance of early diagnosis in determining successful treatment. He reviewed in detail the various methods available for diagnosis. These methods, Dr. Ling said, would have to be left to experts of sound training and long experience as it was sometimes exceedingly difficult to interpret results.

The public could assist in combating the disease by realising the significance of early symptoms and the need of seeking medical advice as soon as possible.

EARLY SYMPTOMS

Cough with or without blood in sputum, loss of weight, fever, dyspepsia, night sweat, fatigue and psychological disturbances should be looked upon with suspicion.

Most of the hospital cases came from the poorer classes of the local population and there could be no doubt that the problems requiring immediate attention were those of housing and nutrition where these people were concerned. The high mortality rate resulting from the disease and the widespread infection were due mainly to these two defects.

MAIN IMPORTANCE

The discussion after the lecture lasted well over an hour. Opinions differed as to the choice of surgical or medical methods for the treatment of pulmonary tuberculosis, but it was generally agreed that early diagnosis was of main importance.

Among the poor, it was agreed, overcrowding and malnutrition were the two stumbling blocks to the eradication of pulmonary tuberculosis from Hongkong. The three acute difficulties being faced by the Colony in the struggle with tuberculosis, it was felt, were the absence of sanatoria, the overcrowded tenements and malnutrition of the masses.

IN DARKEST HAMPSHIRE

"Is my bath ready, Hawkins?"

"Not quite, Sir. They're just dusting it."

"A gesture of old world courtesy, no doubt, but was it really necessary?"

"Very necessary indeed, Sir, as it helps to be a hip-bath which has been some years in the wash-house. His Lordship rarely entertains."

"His Lordship's notions of hospitality are not of this century. He seemed to think he had a secret duty to lay me low beneath the table. I marvel that I'm here to tell the tale."

"Yet in some ways His Lordship is well ahead of modern thought. This bottle of Rose's Lime Juice, Sir, in your room..."

"Placed there by His Lordship's own hand, Hawkins. And a very refreshing drink following upon a one-sided battle with his Lordship's decanter."

"Yes, Sir, and Rose's has still further virtues. It is justly renowned for eliminating the after-effects of alcohol vulgarly known as 'morning after'."

"So that's why I'm still alive and kicking? Well, well, one lives and learns. Go and boil the kettle for my bath. I don't want to miss my breakfast."

Farcical "New Orders"

THE MORE ONE HEARS of the "new orders" for peace and prosperity which the Totalitarian States have been trumpeting to the world in general, the more one is convinced of their farcical character and the more it becomes clear that the much heralded benefits which the world is told it will receive, once these "new orders" have been established, are nothing but a cloak to cover domination by brute force. Civilisation will have no escape if these "new orders" through aggression are not prevented from materialising. It is not hard to visualise the chaotic conditions which would prevail—culture, traditions, liberty and free thinking destroyed, political and economic progress stifled and social advancement subordinated to ruthless discipline. In the conquered countries of Europe, this deterioration, under the heel of the dictators, is already evident. The national aspirations of the Czechs have been swept away by the German aggressors, their cultural institutions have been dedicated to the god of war and the country converted into a miserable state of poverty and impotence. Poland, Denmark, Norway and the Low Countries are on the road to the same fate. The ambitions of their people to share in the free intercourse between nations are being thwarted at every turn and the very life blood of their existence is being drained away to satisfy the greed of the ogres of Europe.

THIS HIDEOUS STATE of affairs is still described by the aggressors as the peace and prosperity which their "new order for Europe" promises to all those nations who are willing to take the suicidal step of becoming a new victim. This "invitation" has now been delivered to France—the biggest fly the German spider will ever have inveigled into his web. And thus, the farce is being con-

Severe Typhoon Damage
At Wake IslandVIVID ACCOUNT
BY CLIPPER
COMMANDER

EXPLAINING THE RECENT LENGTHY DELAY IN THE ARRIVAL OF THE CLIPPER AT HONGKONG, Captain J. Chase, commanding the California Clipper, which arrived in Hongkong on Thursday afternoon, gave a vivid account of the destruction and severe damage caused by the recent typhoon at the Pan American Airways base on Wake Island.

PLANE HELD UP

Captain Chase's plane remained in Honolulu for six days waiting for the storm to abate. However, after it had caused havoc continued. The deluded men of Vichy have failed to recognise the complete disaster into which they are leading their country. They have also failed to recognise that the collaboration the Nazi dictator wants of them is the surest sign of his weakness and an admission that Britain, the one country which has successfully resisted his brutality so far, has sapped his energy and resources to such an extent that only securing complete control of French territory will, at least temporarily, help him to tide over his difficulties. One can imagine the sigh of relief which the German Fuehrer must have given when he found that the Vichy Government was ready to nibble at his "new order" bait, under the impression that that step was the only way to save France from annihilation. It is doubtful whether the Vichy Government, in view of the Italian aggression against Greece, have yet realised how futile are their hopes of preserving the independence of France.

IN THE EAST, the same facts fit into the picture of the Japanese ideas of creating a "new order" in the Orient. Here, as in Europe, those essentials which are necessary for a lasting peace do not exist. Peace accepted on a foundation of aggression can only be a temporary and dangerous expedient. No nation realises this better than the Chinese. What has taken place in their own country, which the Japanese have tried unsuccessfully to subdue for over three years, has convinced them that the "new order" which Japan is seeking to establish is opposed to all justice and decency. That realisation has only recently come to the western powers who have interests in the Orient and, fortunately, it came not a minute too soon. The lessons learned from China must now stand these western powers in good stead. Appeasement has been abandoned and no patched-up peace in the eastern hemisphere will be permitted, despite the engineering which Germany is engaged in to bring this about. The stamp of aggression is too strong in all these gestures to reconcile them with the glowing advantages which they proclaim. The farce behind the "new orders" is, indeed, being exposed to the view of the whole world. Britain and the United States, who have now made their position clear, stand together in the front line of the defence of freedom and have shown their resolve to crush the hateful principles which underlie the manoeuvring of the Totalitarian countries and their "new orders."

at Wake, the storm curved eastward and passed, over the Pan American base at Midway Island. But by this time, it had fortunately lost its previous intensity and the Midway Island damage was less severe, although all docks and floating equipment at Midway were lost in the sea.

100 M. P. H. WINDS
Captain Chase said that Wake Island reported steady winds of 100 miles per hour velocity for a period of three hours, with gusts up to 150 miles per hour. All barges, floats, and mooring equipment for the Clippers were completely lost.

In spite of the intensity of the storm, which incidentally is the first storm to mar the usual peaceful atmosphere at Wake since the establishment of the Pan American Airways base almost six years ago, and the great damage that this storm caused, none of the Pan American personnel were injured.

All Clippers flying to Wake now are carrying scores of technicians, carpenters, and repair men from Guam, Midway, and Honolulu to reconstruct the Wake buildings.

Pan American's Chief Meteorologist in Manila, Mr. Lester Fennell, also arrived in Hongkong on an inspection trip. He stated that the storm was one of the severest to be recorded on the Pan American weather maps for some time. This storm is believed to be the same one that gave the "President Coolidge" such a difficult time.

Laval Has More Chats
With Nazi

M. Laval has returned to Vichy from Paris after some more chats with his German friends, stated a message from London last night. He was accompanied by two other members of the Vichy Cabinet and M. Laval said he brought away touching memories of that meeting.

He warned the French people, however, that there was a long road to travel still. The subjects discussed by them at the meeting covered many questions and answers to many points would be forthcoming shortly.

DEMOCRACY DEAD

M. Laval frankly admitted that he believed democracy was dead, when he was interviewed by Mr. Roy Porter, the B. B. C. observer. "He gave me the impression," says Mr. Porter, "that he considers Britain as part of the Franco-German collaboration."

A French broadcast yesterday warned the French people that this collaboration would not produce an immediate result. It would not mean that they could abolish their ration cards or fill their coal scuttles.

CHRIST CHURCH
DANCE SUCCESS

The Christ Church Grand Dance and Cabaret at the Rose Room of the Peninsula Hotel last night proved a highly successful affair, the attendance numbering over 700.

Cabaret items featured Helen and Stella Ho, John Gilchrist, Betty Lee, Mi-Na To and two Scottish dances, the Highland Fling and Broad Sword Dance. Pipe Major Rankine, L/Cpl. Moore, Major Webster, Piper Stewart and Piper Martin participated in these latter.

The Band of the 2nd Battalion, The Royal Scots, supplied the dance music.

Arrangements for the evening were in the hands of Mr. G. C. Anderson, Mrs. G. Goddard, Capt. A. C. Houghton, Mr. D. Kossick, Mr. S. W. Marshall, the Rev. H. D. Rosenthal and Mr. J. A. Tarrant. Prizes for the most successful dance hostesses were awarded as follows: 1. Miss Mabel Churn; 2. Miss June Booker; 3. Miss Sheila Baskett and Mrs. Blackman; 4. Miss Helen Ho; 5. Miss Grace Darby.

CORRESPONDENCE OVERCROWDING AT
SOCCER MATCHES

The Editor, H.K. Daily Press
Sir.—In view of the criticism (much of which is justifiable) which has been levelled against the South China A.A. on the question of overcrowding and the unauthorised sale of admission tickets, steps are being taken by the committee of the S. C. A. A. to prevent these evils in future.

My committee has gone thoroughly into the two questions and disciplinary action has been taken against those who failed at last Sunday's match to do their duty.

In future, there will be no advance sale of tickets; sales will start at 1.30 p.m. Tickets will be limited strictly to the seating capacity and, when these have been sold, no more will be issued and those who arrive late will be denied admission unless they are holders of special passes issued by the S.C.A.A., the Hongkong Football Association and/or Eastern A.A. There will be no deviation from these rules.

Railings have been installed to enable only one person to approach the ticket booths at a time. Queues will be formed outside these railings and, when the leader has purchased his ticket, and entered the ground, the next person will step into his place and buy his ticket, and so on in rotation.

In order to prevent the purchase of tickets in lots and their sale by unauthorised persons, not more than one ticket may be purchased by any person (except in special cases at the discretion of the committee or the member of the committee delegated to supervise any special ticket booth).

As soon as ticket purchasers have entered the grounds, checkers will tear away parts of their tickets and holders must move to their seats without delay. Ticket holders will not be permitted to leave the ground until the game has ended; should they do so, they will not be re-admitted unless they possess unexpired tickets.

We realise the difficulty in handling hawkers and we are trying to cope with this problem by revoking licences. Nevertheless, there is hardly a ground in Hongkong which is not confronted with the same difficulty. How many hawkers, pea-nut sellers and dirty, ragged children (many of whom, the public might be warned, are merely pick-pockets) sneak into the ground is beyond comprehension. They simply manage to get in and, by the time we have expelled a dozen of them, their places have been taken by two dozen others.

I appreciate Sawit's letter in today's Morning Post but I am afraid that it is not quite so easy a matter to remedy the situation as he thinks. If "Sawit" does not believe this statement, I invite him to come with me, as my guest, to any important football game, and I am sure he will realise the problems with which my committee and I are faced.

Although St. Joseph's managed to equal their 1936 record for the 200 yards free style relay, the times at the finals of the Inter-School swimming championships held at the V.R.C. pool yesterday were slower than those returned at Tuesday's heats.

Mr. C. G. Solis, Director of Education, presented the trophy to the winners.

MARINERS WARNED

The following Notice to Mariners was issued by Commander G. F. Hole, Harbour Master, on Oct. 31: "A floating mine was reported as being in position Lat. 25° 38' N. and Long. 120° 13' E., at 1.30 a.m. on Oct. 29, by the master of s.s. Shinkuang."

STEED

and then back again to meet Marshal Petain.

"What does it all mean? It means one thing. Hitler's failure to invade England or to win the Battle of Britain had compelled him to seek something elsewhere. He knows that the people of all the subjugated countries are aware of this. He knows, too, that he cannot win a decision by himself so long as Britain is unsubdued. He wishes to make Spain, France and Bulgaria to fight for him and he has told Italy to do something more than she has done if she wants a share.

PRICE TOO HIGH

"I should have liked to have been present at this meeting between Hitler and Mussolini. I can imagine Hitler attempting to win over Petain by urging Italy to prosecute her war with more energy. It is something like an attempt to square the circle. But Petain might find the price too high.

"If on the other hand he was obliged to tell Mussolini that Italy cannot have all the territories she covets it is not hard to imagine that Mussolini would have pulled a wry face. Of course, Mussolini might have replied that Hitler's conquest of Britain was even slower, and that the two plans were meant to work at the same moment.

"Yet Mussolini knows that he must be careful and that is why the attack on Greece began on the day when Hitler was to meet Il Duce at Florence.

"A great deal may depend on the course of the Italian attack on Greece. The spirit of the Greek Army and the Greek people is good. Attempts might be made to undermine it from without but I should be very surprised if the Greeks are prepared to accept any sort of mediation. They fought gallantly in the Balkan wars and gave the Allies no little help in the last war.

"We know also that the terrain of their country does not facilitate the movement of forces. The British Navy has mined strategic points in Greek waters and it seems certain now that Italy and Germany are urging Bulgaria to move against Greece. If Bulgaria does this the whole of the Balkan Peninsula will flare up.

"It does not seem that the situation is unfavourable to Italian and German designs. The struggle in and around the Mediterranean may depend on sea-power and as long as Britain controls this the chances of enemy victory are poor.

BY EVERY MEANS

"It is this mastery which Hitler and Mussolini are striving and will continue to strive to break down by every means. If Hitler and Mussolini cannot persuade the Vichy Government to put the French Fleet and French naval and air bases at their disposal their task will be much heavier.

"We have had several months to prepare and if I say that we face the situation with good heart I am sure I have not overstated the case. Nor am I sure that the acceptance of what is called the principles of collaboration with Germany by Petain implies a readiness on his part to place the French navy and air bases and French warships at Hitler's disposal.

"In a broadcast on Wednesday last to the French people Petain said that the application of these principles will be discussed later and that aggression would be excluded from them.

"It is clear that the Marshal is inclined to mark time for the moment. The question is whether Petain or Laval rules unoccupied France.

"For Petain it is still possible to feel some respect but for Laval, it is impossible to feel any kind of respect. He is totally devoid of scruples and honour and he has unbounded confidence in himself. He now thinks he can make rings round Hitler and is unconscious that Hitler simply wants to use him against England.

A BAD LOT

"Pierre Laval is a bad lot and it is inexplicable how Petain came to choose him as his chief assistant. From everything we hear from France the great majority of the French people are praying for a British victory. They are also waiting for the result of the Presidential elections in the United States; not because they think it will change the determination of the American people to help the Allies, but because they know

Canada Turned Into Huge Arsenal

People Taking Pride In Achievements Of Navy

"Canada has been turned into a huge arsenal for the production of armaments on a scale unknown in the last war," said MR. G. O'LEARY, a Canadian, who broadcast recently to England.

Mr. O'Leary opened his talk by citing a few figures on Canada's war efforts.

Today Canada's active force was 170,000 men. The permanent militia had grown to over 100,000 men and 300,000 would be in training in the coming year. Before the war, the Canadian Navy consisted of six destroyers and seven other ships, with 1,800 men. Today Canada had 130 ships and more than 12,000 men.

"Meanwhile," said Mr. O'Leary, "the Canadian people are taking some pride in the achievements of their navy. They point to the fact that since the war began 3,000 ships have sailed from eastern Canadian ports and that the Canadian Navy had something to do with the conveying and protection and that the measure of that protection was evident from the fact that only fifteen ships were lost.

"In the production of war supplies there has been tremendous gain within recent months. For the production of tanks alone $150,000,000 have been expended. In addition to naval guns and aircraft engines. The plain fact is that Canada has been turned into a huge arsenal for the production of armaments on a scale unknown in the last war. Canada is making, and will continue to make, her greatest contribution to the war effort.

AIR TRAINING PLAN

"The air training plan is no longer a plan of defence. It has forty training schools and in the next summer there will be eighty schools capable of turning out pilots at the rate of 8,000 a year. Aircraft factories have increased their output. Last week production totalled 53 planes and within

Fresh Review Of Position Of Air Warfare

LONDON, Nov. 1 (British Wireless).—The end of the second month of violent air attacks on Britain gives an opportunity for a fresh review of the general position of air warfare between the R.A.F. and Luftwaffe.

THE TIMES comments: "The air battle over Britain during October cost the enemy much less than in the earlier phases.

"But the loss to his prestige has been far greater as the Italian assault on Greece, that an attempt to blast a way for invasion by air attack has definitely failed."

SPANISH VISITOR'S STUDY

The latest visitor to arrive in Britain is Senor del Polzo who is stated to be a close friend of Senor Suner, the Spanish Foreign Minister. Senor del Polzo has come to report on how the air war over Britain is going on.

"German propaganda in Spain has been giving one version of the damage done in this country," he said. "But this does not tally with reports from other quarters."

Senor del Polzo had now seen the falsity of the German claims and he added, "We imagined your city was in ruins and we are glad to see that it is not."

Senor del Polzo said he was sure that Spain would remain neutral and he did not think his country would permit any foreign troops to pass through Spanish territory.

An alert engine crew prevented what could very easily have been a disastrous accident in a derailment of the through train from Kowloon to Looi that occurred at the "fork" near Fanling Station about 7 a.m. on Thursday. Traffic was held up for a considerable period, but was resumed before midnight.

ARMISTICE DAY OBSERVANCES

NO CEREMONY AT CENOTAPH

LONDON, Nov. 1 (BWS).—The King has decided that the usual Armistice Day service at the Cenotaph shall not be held this year, and the Government feel that in the present circumstances it would be preferable that other large services which it had been the custom to hold throughout the country should not be held.

In view of the risk of confusion with air raid warning signals, it will not be possible to signal a two-minute silence as in previous years.

November 11 will, however, be observed as Poppy Day as hitherto and the British Legion are making the usual arrangements for the sale of poppies in aid of Earl Haig's Fund.

GENERAL DESIRE

"H.M.G. have announced in the present circumstances Armistice Day cannot be observed in the usual manner. While this is inevitable, there will be a general desire that Armistice Day should not pass without association which have so long surrounded it.

It is, therefore, proposed with the approval of the King that Sunday, Nov. 10, should be observed in our various places of worship and in our hearts and homes as a day of remembrance and dedication."

REMEMBRANCE

REMEMBRANCE.—We shall still remember those who fought and died for their country's cause in the last war, and with them now those who have already in the present war given their lives.

DEDICATION.—We shall dedicate ourselves to the task of finishing, if it may be, the work which the men of 1914-1918 sought to do, and of doing and giving our utmost to win the victory of freedom, justice and peace.

We shall dedicate our minds and wills even now to the task which will await us when this war is over—the task of bringing in a new and better ordering of our common life both national and international on a basis of Christian faith and on loyalty to the Kingdom of God.

Czechs Under Nazi Rule

WHOLE COUNTRY GERMANISED

"In spite of what the Nazis are doing, the day is coming when victory will find an unbroken Czech nation back on its soil," said a Czech resident of London, in the course of a talk last night on conditions in Czechoslovakia under German rule.

STRICT BLACK-OUTS

Black-outs in Czechoslovakia, he said, were stricter than in Germany proper. Not even shaded street lamps are allowed and the screening of doors and windows was more rigidly done than in Germany. One reason for this was to prevent the Czech people from helping aircraft by the use of light signals.

The whole country was being Germanised. Gone are the promises of cultural progress. The whole plan was to wipe out the Czech nation and the only elements allowed to remain would be those who would permit their children to be Germanised.

INDUSTRY CONTROLLED

Czech industry was completely under German control. Herr Hitler knew well the value of the intelligentsia to the life of the nation and he had given orders for the extermination of this intelligentsia. All secondary schools have been converted into barracks.

The British resistance, however, was encouraging the Czech people and in spite of what the Nazis were doing, the day of coming victory would find an unbroken Czech nation back on its soil.

Two of the United States Naval Reservists in Hongkong who had been recalled for active service have now been exempted on grounds of ill-health. They are E.R. "Red" Sammons, manager of "Vigle's Cafe," Wanchai, and William Gunn, Jr.

the Greek Government would repeat its rash action while there is still time."

The announcement added that fighting in the mountain zone must entail a slow and sure advance costing the smallest number of lives and the least damage before this is turned into a sweeping and conquering attack.

GREEK APPEAL

ATHENS, Nov. 1 (Reuters).—An appeal to workers of the world, especially those of the United States and the Soviet and other neutral countries, to force their governments not to sell armaments or raw materials to Italy was broadcast by M. Dimitrios, Greek Minister for Labour and Secretary of the Workers' Guilds.

M. Dimitrios addressed a special message to the British Labour Party for the magnificent fight they are putting up, adding: "We are fighting with you to the last man and to victory."

To the Italian Labour Party, M. Dimitrios said: "Your imperialist government takes men from their homes to fight. What do they want from us? They do not even know our language. Ask your Government why."

M. Dimitrios also appealed to Albanians to continue their fight against Italy, stating that the Greek Army was ready to help them.

CYPRIOI ENTHUSIASM

NICOSIAS (Cyprus), Nov. 1 (Reuters).—The enthusiasm which Cypriots have shown for the Allied cause since the beginning of the war has developed feverishly since the entry of Greece into the fight against the Italians.

Everywhere houses and shops are beflagged and gifts of money are pouring into the Greek Consulate.

Dr. Leontios, well-known Bishop of Paphos and now Acting Archbishop, who was once charged with "spreading dissatisfaction among His Majesty's subjects" has expressed himself as a whole-hearted supporter of the Allied cause and the Greek flag and the Union Jack fly side by side over his residence.

GALLANT AIR FORCE

LONDON, Nov. 1, (Reuters).—The gallant little Greek Air Force continues to take the initiative and are pasting Italian aerodromes with bombs.

One of three Greek bombers which attacked Italian troops on the march failed to return as on the way home it engaged 12 Italian fighters.

The terrain on which the troops are fighting is wild, stony and hilly. The mountains stretch away into the distance—a veritable scene of desolation with here and there large patches of thin bush, the grey scrub contrasting with the red, brown hills.

Small villages are scattered all over the landscape. There are no major roads—only tracks with occasional small bridges over precipitous ravines.

The Greek Premier has sent a message of sympathy to the people of Patras which had been bombed on several occasions by Italian planes.

It is revealed that 15 Italians were among the casualties.

ATHENS GOVT. BACKED

CAIRO, Nov. 1 (Reuters).—United by the invasion of their country the Greeks in Egypt have made a clean sweep of their political differences and irrespective of Party feelings all of them are backing the Athens Government.

Telegrams to this effect have been sent to General Metaxas and the Commander-in-Chief of the Greek forces.

Although no instructions on mobilisation have yet been received from Athens, hundreds of Greeks are already offering their services with the Army and Greek Consulates, particularly Alexandria, are hardly able to cope with the rush of volunteers.

Greek resistance continues to evoke "much satisfaction" in the Egyptian Press.

It had an encouraging effect on Egyptian public opinion and has given the lie to propaganda agents who persistently claimed that neither Greece nor Turkey would resist aggression at the side of the Allies.

Chinese aircraft flew over Shum-chin and Namtan on Wednesday. Japanese anti-aircraft batteries opened fire but no machine was hit.

AMERICANS MUST BE TOLD

insignificant if he was elected. American opinion has undoubtedly been stirred by the struggle we are engaged in.

"And as the dictators are looking round them, they must find many things to dishearten them elsewhere. Take the invasion of Greece. It is almost a go slow war. The Italians have not yet come up against the main Greek defences, and contrary to German and Italian propaganda, the Greek determination and fighting strength remains unimpaired.

"And now Britain has thrown in her aid to help them. The British Air Force has bombed Naples and swept the East Mediterranean, including the Italian and Greek coasts, on reconnaissance flights.

"The military situation in the Balkans must remain obscure for some days. The Italians are astonished at the stubborn resistance of the Greek troops. They were expecting an easy walk-over or a Quisling sequel. But the Greeks have a strong tradition of freedom and independence. Their battles against domination stirred the imagination of Europe in the last century and in these days, with Greek independence again threatened, it has again fallen to Britain to help Greece in her struggle for freedom.

"It is significant that Italy is making excuses for the slowness of the operations by blaming the weather. I am surprised that they tried to advance along the coast of the Ionian Sea instead of going for Salonic. Are they afraid of getting Turkey into the war?

"But, Turkey has not so far committed herself by going to Greece's aid unless Bulgaria comes into the attack. The position will doubtless be made clear when the Turkish President makes his speech today, but it is certain that Turkey will resist if she is attacked and if the Germans make an attempt to get near the Straits.

HOW TURKEY FEELS

"Exactly how Turkey feels is revealed in the Turkish paper, ULUS, which says: 'If Italy thinks it necessary to make a display of her power, why did she not act against her British enemy in the Mediterranean and Africa? Why select a harmless and neutral state for this show of force? The Axis does not recognise any law but that of force and extends to nations no other rights than that of being slaves.'

"We now have to see to what extent Britain is going to take part in the Defence of Greece. Rumours and they are only rumours—of British landings on Greek islands have been received with enthusiasm in Ankara and British aid will be given with only one limit and that is that it does not hamper her needs in her own sphere.

"It might become necessary for Britain to establish bases on the Greek islands and it

Diminution Of Air Activity Over Britain

LONDON, Nov. 1 (Reuters).—There was a further diminution in enemy air activity over Great Britain last night and the few bombing reports—from East Anglia, London and a town in the Midlands—say little damage was caused and there were a few casualties.

The Air Ministry communique adds that a few bombs were dropped with little effect on one point on the north-east coast of Scotland.

THE WEATHER

Maximum temperature yesterday was 81 and the minimum 73. Total rainfall since Jan. 1 is 113.97 inches against an average of 82.36.

The Royal Observatory report states:—A moderate anti-cyclone covers Japan and the adjacent seas. A depression appears to be developing to the south of Guam.

will be necessary to hold such islands and it is here that the question of air superiority is of great importance.

"Herr von Papen," continued Mr. Lakin, "the wily Nazi Ambassador to Turkey, who put Herr Hitler into power, is making a spectacular dash to Berlin where he will report to Herr Hitler. Germany has so far maintained her fiction of neutrality in the Greek war. It is a device to enable the Germans to act as mediators, but the Greeks are not going to be deceived by this friendliness.

VICHY AGREEMENT

"M. Laval, in the meantime, is continuing his mysterious conversations with the Germans on the application of the agreement in principle reached between Germany and Vichy. Marshal Petain's broadcast on Monday revealed nothing of the substance of this agreement and it must have been a bitter disappointment to the French people who were hoping at least that their war prisoners would be released. There was no hint of this and all that Marshal Petain said was that their lot would be improved and a vague reference to the moving back of the demarcation line. But the demarcation line is a convenient German weapon, which they can move backwards and forwards to suit the occasion."

Concluding, Mr. Lakin referred to General Weygand's proclamation warning the French people of North Africa from listening to "vicious reports" and stating that Marshal Petain will never do anything incompatible with the honour of France.

"The question is," said Mr. Lakin, "whether General Weygand uttered the phrase in all seriousness or with his tongue in his cheek, in which case there might be resistance from him. If he thinks Vichy is going too far and I think Vichy will take it as a warning."

ENGLAND'S MONARCH DARING

Some concern was expressed in certain responsible quarters in London over the disregard of King George for the air raid warnings and his disinclination to seek shelter while German bombers are over the capital.

The King appears determined to continue his job of mixing among his people in the streets and in defence centres and several times, has narrowly escaped death from bombs exploding nearby.

An armoured car was recently added to the King's entourage because of his insistence that he continue with his work despite air raid warnings. The armoured car is equipped with bullet-proof glass and a splinter-proof body. The King and Queen wherever they are out touring the city.

"TIN CAN"

"It looks like a tin can," was the King's remark when he first saw the vehicle. "We ought to have a tin opener."

The King becomes irritated and impatient if anyone suggests that he should take cover during air raids and will not even listen to mild reprimands from high court and government officials who tell him he should avoid undue risk. The King has not received such advice, however, from the Prime Minister, Mr. Winston Churchill. Mr. Churchill is in no position to caution the King, because the Prime Minister himself refuses to take precautions during air raids.

Women members of the Royal Family, including Queen Elizabeth, are now being instructed in rifle and revolver shooting on a 25 yard range fitted up on the grounds of Buckingham Palace.

The Queen, sitting cross-legged like a tallor, has proved to be a most efficient shot with a rifle and is also good with a revolver, her instructors reported.

The Duchess of Kent is a crack shot with an automatic revolver. The Queen's Ladies in Waiting also are being instructed in the use of small arms.

Service on Sunday, November 3.
The subject of the Lesson Sermon in all Christian Science Churches will be "Everlasting

The Golden Text will be:
"Righteousness keepeth him that is upright in the way; but wickedness overthroweth the sinner."
(Proverbs 13: 6).

Among others the following citations will be read from the Bible: "Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him; for they shall eat the fruit of their doings. Woe unto the wicked; it shall be ill with him; for the reward of his hands shall be given him." (Isaiah 11: 10, 11).

The following citations will also be read from the Christian Science
Textbook, "Science and Health

Mary Baker Eddy: "The sinner and the saint his own heaven by doing right. 'Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.'

The good man finally can his necessity, to destroy itself."

CATHOLIC NEWS &amp; NOTES

ALL SOULS' DAY: BLESSED JOHN
GABRIEL PERBOYRE

TODAY IS THE FEAST OF THE COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED, COMMONLY KNOWN AS "ALL SOULS' DAY." It is a day of prayer for the dead, and the ceremony that takes place at the cemeteries today is not a mere idle one of commemoration, but of prayer.

This special day of commemoration of the dead, commemorates the "Faithful Departed," that is those who died faithful to God and, therefore, in His favour, but who yet may be still in Purgatory. The feast has been observed since the tenth century. Priests say three Masses, which are offered for the dead; on this day, it is a very recent privilege for it was first conceded by Pope Benedict XV during the first Great War. The Pope was particularly moved by the thought of the thousands who were slain in the war.

JOHN GABRIEL PERBOYRE
On Thursday next there is celebrated the feast of blessed John Gabriel Perboyre, a French missionary priest who has martyred in China exactly a century ago. He is probably the best known among the martyrs of China for he was the first of them to be declared Blessed.

He was a Vincentian and a missionary with qualities that made him outstanding. His work was mostly done in Hupeh and to the present day groups of families continue to practise the Faith which they received through his teaching. All through these two provinces, the memory of him is kept fresh in the minds of those who heard stories of him from parents and grandparents. His martyrdom took place at a time when persecution had gone on for a long time and many people were disurtened.

MEMORY OF BERMUDA

The West Indian Islands of Bermuda, in which the British Government has offered a naval base to the United States, have,
at least, one romantic record.
In 1803 Tom Moore, the well-known Catholic poet and author of the familiar "Irish Melodies," was, through the influence of his friend, Lord Moira, appointed registrar of the Admiralty Prize-Court at Bermuda. In a year he grew tired of the monotony and isolation. He returned to London, leaving a deputy in charge. Thirteen years later the deputy was indicted for embezzling £4,000. Moore was held to be responsible for his subordinate, and as he could not raise the money, he fled to the Continent to avoid a debtors' prison. He spent five years in France and Italy, but in 1822,

Murray, the publisher, succeeded in compromising the matter for £1,000, and Moore was able to return to London again.

FILM STAR'S MARRIAGE

Some months ago when the well-known film star, Loretta Young was married, in a Catholic Church in Los Angeles, many people expressed surprise that one who was known to have been previously married could go through second marriage with the consent of the Church. The facts however are quite clear. Miss Young, who is a Catholic, eloped at the age of seventeen and went through a marriage ceremony
before a Justice of the Peace.
In the eyes of the Church this is not a valid marriage. It may be recognised by the State but it is not, in the eyes of the Church, a lawful marriage for Catholics, who are naturally subject to the Church's laws. Almost immediately after the marriage the couple separated and then the marriage was legally dissolved. No special dissolution was needed by the Church, since it was, by Catholic law, no marriage.

AMERICAN STEEL INDUSTRY

NO STRAIN ON CAPACITY

The U.S. steel industry is in no danger of a shortage of ingot-producing capacity as a result of national defence requirements, according to expert opinion within the industry.

If the United States passes from a state of active preparedness to a state of actual war, on the other hand, it is quite possible that the civil use of steel may have to be rationed, and full priorities given to armament needs for steel, not because the industry lacks adequate production facilities but because of the speeding up of armaments manufacture with a consequent rush for steel.

These conclusions are based on the most sanguine interpretations of statistics. Basic steel capacity at the beginning of 1940 was about 81,000,000 net tons annually. Finished steel production runs at 75 per cent of ingot output, giving a present capacity of 60,000,000 net tons of hot-rolled steel products.

The highest peace-time output of finished steel was 46,000,000 net tons in 1929, which can be characterized mainly as due to "civilian" demand. In 1939 finished steel production was 39,000,000 net tons, which included a small proportion of armaments here and a more important proportion of export iron due to the war.

The 1929 figure included about 2,500,000 net tons of exports, whereas the current rate of exports is about 7,500,000 tons annually, a gain of 5,000,000 tons.

"CIVILIAN DEMAND"

Assuming a "civilian" demand for steel in 1941 equal to that in 1929, which is a generous assumption and not at all likely for numerous reasons, and adding the export increase, a potential output of 51,000,000 net tons for other than military needs may be postulated, leaving 8,000,000 tons of finished-steel capacity for Army and Navy uses.

To date, estimates place the national defence steel requirements at between 12,000,000 and 15,000,000 net tons of finished steel products, but this includes orders deliverable over three to four years. Hence, even a speeding up that would involve a halving of the delivery schedules would not exhaust the industry's productive capacity.

Further, productive capacity is based on normal operations without "speed-up." The weekly rates of capacity allow a 12 1/2 per cent factor for periodical relining of furnaces, so that the industry might attain 112 1/2 per cent of basic capacity over periods when no relining of furnaces is taking place.

Of course, this could not go on indefinitely. But with "speed-up," or forcing, the calculated rate can be exceeded. One steel company is producing steel at 122 per cent of its rated capacity, as an instance of what can be done to push production, while the industry as a whole is now at 93 per cent of capacity.

Hence, steel operators feel little concern over reports, mainly in Washington, that ingot output might become a serious "bottleneck" as a result of national defence efforts.

Since the beginning of 1939, up to the present, the industry has eliminated two open hearths producing 60,000 net tons of steel annually and added two producing 490,000 tons. It has added sixteen electric furnaces producing 635,000 net tons of ingots annually. While further additions may be contemplated, none has been announced or budgeted, which would be the case if a serious bottleneck were considered imminent.

The recent additions make present actual raw capacity about 82,500,000 net tons annually, but the more familiar figure of 81,000,000 tons is used in the foregoing calculations owing to its "official" standing.

American Production Of Bombers

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1 (Reuter)

The United States War Department is reported to have planned the production of 12,000 additional bombers, largely with the help of the motor-car industry.

This programme, estimated to cost US$2,000,000,000, is stated to have been planned to produce the 12,000 bombers asked for by Britain.

It is believed the War Department proposes the erection of two large factories to assemble parts manufactured in motor-car factories.

Whether these will be operated by the Government or the aircraft or motor-car industry has not yet been decided.

LONDON STOCK EXCHANGE

LONDON, Nov. 1 (Reuter) — Business on the London Stock Exchange yesterday was small and, mainly, confined to investment issues. Nevertheless the trend generally was firmer. Glit-edged and some railways appreciated. Kaffirs improved on local support. Oils were better after early hesitancy. Movements of industrials were few but generally in holders' favour. Wall Street was firm.

Record Drop
Of Mercury*October Deficient
In Sunshine

During the earlier part of the month the weather was warm, and rather less sunny than is usual at this time of year; there were occasional slight falls of rain.

A sudden onset of the N.E. monsoon on the afternoon of the 24th resulted in a fall of temperature of 30 deg. F in 24 hours, and the minimum temperature on the following day was the lowest ever recorded in October.

The onset of this cold air was accompanied by overcast weather and occasional light rain. The temperature soon rose again, and the last few days of the month were fair and warm.

No typhoons affected the Colony during the month.

The mean temperature for October was 77.9 degs. F, which is 1.7 degs. above normal.

RECORD FALL

A maximum of 88.5 degs. was recorded on the 1st, and a minimum of 57.3 degs. on the 25th; the latter is a record for October.

The mean relative humidity was 75 per cent. against a normal of 72 per cent.

Sunshine amounted to 188 hours, which is 31 hours, which is 31 hours less than normal. The total rainfall was 1.29 inches, which is less than one third of the normal.

The maximum wind velocity in a gust was 34 m.p.h. at 4.15 a.m. on the 17th.

PIONEER AIRMEN IN SINGAPORE

From opposite sides of the world two civil aviation pioneers and World War I veterans met in Singapore to discuss, among other things, the business affairs of two of the world's most important air travel concerns.

They were Major C. McCredie, deputy director of British Overseas Airways Corporation and Mr. Hudson Fysh, managing director of Qantas Airways.

Both pioneers are on inspection tours. Major McCredie to look over B.O.A.C.'s route from Durban to Singapore, and Mr. Hudson Fysh Qantas' route from Singapore to Sydney. They will fly together to Sydney.

Major McCredie was one of the first pilots in the last war's Royal Flying Corps, later flew the first passenger air service from England to France, a military passenger service which "ferried" across the Channel high officials going to and from the Peace Conference.

When this air-plane "ferry" service was stopped, Major McCredie became a lawyer, practiced 10 years until 1935 when he returned to his old love as head of an airway company which amalgamated later with other British air services to become Imperial Airways, and still later British Overseas Airways Corporation.

WAR DECORATION

Mr. Hudson Fysh is one of the founders of Qantas Airways, actually was one of the two pilots who surveyed the first route in 1919 over which the company eventually began operations.

Major McCredie was decorated in the last war, shot down a number of planes but says, "let's not talk about it." He would rather talk about the World War II heroes, six of whom are B.O.A.C. pilots now with the R.A.F. These six have just been awarded D.F.C.s for gallantry.

Mr. Hudson Fysh can put D.F.C. after his own name, but he also would rather talk of this new war's heroes. From Qantas, 50

HONG LEAGUE TO OPEN SEASON WITH TWO TUSSLES

All-Indian Derby Is The Main Attraction Of This Week's Softball Programme

THE MAIN FEATURE OF TOMORROW'S TWELVE-GAME SOFTBALL PROGRAMME will be the All-Indian derby match, between the Cyclone Sports Club and the Indian Softball Club, which is scheduled for 3.15 p.m. at the Kowloon Football Club. The Hong teams open their season with a clash between the Greenspots and Lacas which will be followed by the Shell Oilers tussling with the Texaco Oilers, with the first game commencing at 9.30 a.m. at Prince Edward Road.

The first of the six matches that will be decided at the K.F.C. will be the Baby Panthers-Wildcats tussle at 9.30 a.m.; the former showed vast improvement over their last season's form, in their opening game, and should provide the Wildcats with strong opposition in what should be the best of the ladies' games.

The Wildcats, under the tutelage of Abe Liu, have been showing plenty of power with the hickory and are expected to account for Cesare Xavier's outfit of youngsters.

The Wahos will try to redeem themselves for the sorry showing they put up against the Cardinals last week, when they go into action against the Ramblerettes at 11 a.m.

HARD GAME

Although the Green Owls are the much more experienced aggregation, they can anticipate quite a hard game from the Ramblerettes who make up for their inexperience with loads of enthusiasm.

The last of the girls' games commences at 12.30 p.m. with the Chung Hwa lassies and the Canadian Chinese providing the entertainment, what little there is, as the Canuckettes are expected to chalk up another of those runaway wins with which they started the campaign.

The Chung Hwa femmes showed a little improvement last week, but are still much too weak to hold the Maple Leafs to a respectable margin.

MEN'S PROGRAMME

The first division men's programme commences at 2 p.m. with the Hongkong Baseballers in opposition to the Recreio Aces who look to be a good bet for this season's pennant.

The Club will sadly miss the services of "Foxy" Kent who so tragically lost his life during the week, and Manager Chuck Waggoner will have a difficult task in finding another efficient shortstop. For this reason, the Baseballers are unlikely to make much of an impression on the well-balanced Recreio crew who will have their strongest line-up in the field.

INDIAN DERBY

Next comes the Cyclone-Indian tussle—as is usual between squads of the same nationality intense rivalry prevails as to which are more worthy representatives of their nation.

There was some talk during the week about this game having to be postponed, but Sunburn Omar's Cyclones and Kassa Nazarin's Indians were so keen to have it out that the game will be played as scheduled despite the falling of their national New Year. The Indian Softballers appear to have the more experienced squad and should win over the Cyclones who also have the services of several of India's champion International Series squad of last season.

Ring down the curtain at the K.F.C. will be the tussle between the Chinese Baseball Club and the Filipino Club.

UNIMPRESSIVE SQUADS

Neither squad has been at all impressive during the current season and a lively battle is expected, as the losers will probably be slated for the cellar berth and with it the danger of relegation to the second division. If the Chinese are able to line-up their full strength they should be able to take the honours from Maestro Idefonso's Filipino aggregation.

The second division will stage quite an interesting programme, although the Victoria Recreation Club should have things easy against Royal Artillery in the opener at noon and the Recreio Aces should also walk away with their game against the Royal Scots when they meet at 1.15 p.m.

FIRST OUTING

Chung Hwa and the Royal Air Force should provide a close game as, although the former have much the greater experience, the latter are among the hardest hitting teams in the competition.

This will be Chung Hwa's first outing and their display will be watched with considerable interest as, if the Recreio Aces are to receive any opposition in this section, the Chinese boys are the only team likely to give it.

The nightcap between Cosmopolitan Club and Liga Portuguesa is also likely to be a tight affair, both squads being ranked about the middle of the league standings.

PROGRAMME

Schedule and umpires are as follows:—

LADIES' GAMES

9.30 a.m.—Baby Panthers v. Wildcats—N. Beltrao, B. Abions and D. Walker.

11 a.m.—Wahos v. Recreio—N. Lum, T. Chinn and C. M. Xavier.
